ST GEORGE'S WEST
EDINBURGH

Scottish Charity No. SC008990

Welcome

St Andrew's and St George's West at Festival Time is back this year, bigger and bolder than ever. From classical music to jazz and pop, choirs to bands and soloists, we hope there is plenty here to whet your appetite.

Talking of whetted appetites, our café downstairs in the 'Undercroft' – rated 5★ on TripAdvisor – is open 10.30 am to 2 pm from Monday to Saturday during the Festival. Should you choose to make our venue your 'home' for the duration of the Festival Fringe, that would please us no end.

We rely on enthusiastic volunteers to run the programme you have in front of you and to provide a warm, personal service to our performers. All profits are reinvested in the mission of St Andrew's and St George's West, which is to strive for a fairer world shaped by the life, love and example of Jesus. Each Sunday we gather for worship at 10.30 am and you are very welcome to join us then and stay for tea/coffee and a chat afterwards.

What they say about us:

Performance venue

In the midst of all the frenzy that is the Old Town in August, St Andrew's and St George's West Church on George Street never fails to provide a space of calm.

Edinburgh Reporter

Undercroft Café

Good coffee and lovely home-made scones. Light lunches too. Very pleasant staff and very reasonable prices.

Our historic bells

St Andrew's and St George's West houses the oldest set of change-ringing bells in Scotland, installed in 1789.

The full peal of eight bells were restored in 2006 and have been rung regularly ever since. We ring for service on Sundays and practice on a Monday evening, as well as marking special occasions such as the Coronation, weddings and funerals.

Photos: Jocelyn Cunliffe

Images from the restoration in 2006.

Ringling is a fun activity for anyone from eleven to eighty! As long as you are fit enough to climb the stairs to the ringing chamber, you will be able to ring the bells.

Please don't hesitate to contact us via the Church Office if you would like to visit, or if you are interested in learning to ring.
